

Content

Andreas Dix, Jan-Erik Steinkrüger and Klaus-Dieter Kleefeld
For Winfried Schenk on his 65th birthday 11

Irene Zerza and Haik Thomas Porada
Publications of Winfried Schenk 29

Landscape – Region – Identity

Introduction

Ute Wardenga
Spatial concepts in cultural landscape research – archaeology, history and geography in dialogue. An introduction 49

Eike Gringmuth-Dallmer
Archaeology and geography – the prehistorian Paul Grimm as a student of Otto Schlüter 73

Spacial concepts – also beyond geography

Rolf Peter Tanner
Obaargau region in the canton of Bern – on the question of identity of a transitional area 85

Rudolf Bergmann
Medieval settlement and desertion in the loess-zone of the Westphalian
Hellweg, seen from an inter-methodical point of view 125

Dirk Wübbenhorst
House landscapes of the Lüchow-Dannenberg district in the 19th century 155

Alistair Adam Hernández
Regional resilience and historical path dependencies in the Spanish periphery 169

Hansjörg Küster
From natural gradient to cultural boundary: an example from the North Sea coast 189

Tobias Uhlig and Silke Grefen-Peters

The deposition of late Bronze Age articulated animal skeletons at the Hünenburg near Watenstedt – local tradition or research gap 207

Franz Irsigler

Vineyards called Grav, Grau, Grivos along the Moselle and in France, 9th to 19th century..... 239

Viviane Diederich and Michal Preusz

Along the ‚Golden Road‘ trade route from the Middle Ages until Modern Times. A contribution to the archaeology of the Bavarian-Bohemian Borderland (Area Bärnau–Tachau/Tachov) 257

Ulrich Harteisen

Cultural landscapes as a concept for orienting knowledge-based regional development: perception and development of the Senne cultural landscape in North Rhine-Westphalia..... 289

Matthias Hardt and Melanie Augstein

The Saxons were the last to come to Saxony – how productive the name ‚Saxon‘ was and how it helped to construct regional identity307

Peter Rückert

Sacred landscapes of the Cistercians in the German southwest – demarcation and identity in the Later Middle Ages..... 323

Haik Thomas Porada

The cartographic registration of landscapes in the Baltic Sea region in the 17th century as an instrument of rule of the Early Modern Swedish state 349

Andreas Dix

Landscapes named and renamed – landscape names as sources of historical regionalisation processes 379

Visualisations

Anngret Simms

Urban morphologies in the Middle Ages 401

Niels Petersen

From an excursion guide to an overall survey of the historical landscape: half a century of Lower Saxony’s historical regional research excursion map..... 423

Utz Böhner, Ulrich Knufinke and Christina Krafczyk Monument Atlas of Lower Saxony – Cultural monuments in context	447
---	-----

The future of the past

Carl-Hans Hauptmeyer Networked locality and regionalism as a future model. Are these perspectives for Historical Geography?	457
--	-----

Peter Burggraaff and Klaus-Dieter Kleefeld The cadastre of Cleves	477
---	-----

Claudia Höhnke, Kim J. Krahn and Kristin Haas Human-environment interaction in Bad Waldsee: interdisciplinary research on medieval to early modern urban and climate development and the effect on waterbodies	521
--	-----

Rüdiger Glaser, Michael Kahle, Franck Borel, Rafael Hologa, Oliver Rau and Antje Kellersohn Texts as basic elements of environmental research – from classical analysis to databases and collaborative research environments towards machine learning and crowdsourcing.....	541
--	-----

General Part

Matthias Hardt Obituary of Winfried Schich (1938–2021)	567
Addresses of authors, editors and board members of the working group.....	585
Content.....	589
Main topics of settlement research	592